SHOPPING OF ALL SHAPES, SIZES AND PRICES

Louisville, Ky. (Jan. 31, 2011) – More than 80 companies are expected to showcase their goods and services during the National Farm Machinery Show Feb. 16-19. Aside from the educational and equipment trappings of the nation’s largest indoor farm show, the Family Living Center offers all the atmospheres of a much-loved “country store” and provides the chance for attendees and shoppers to take home items a little easier on the wallet.

Both international and domestic visitors can find something to meet all shopping needs including accessories for the home, clothing and jewelry. Among the exhibitors are:

Amadeus Nut Company from Denver, Co – Serving more than 50 flavored nuts.

Vintage Music from Owensboro, Ky – Offers a wide array of oldies music.

Unique Jewelry from Noblesville, In – Sells homemade jewelry including agricultural-related bracelets, pendants and earrings.

Usborne Books and More from New Albany, In – Local merchant of educational children books.

Breezy Ridge Antiques and Crafts from Raywick, Ky – Offers handcrafted gifts and collectibles.

The Family Living Center is open daily from 9:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m., Feb. 16-19, as part of the NFMS and is located in the East Hall of the Kentucky Exposition Center.

###

The National Farm Machinery Show, the nation’s largest indoor farm show, features the agricultural industry’s most comprehensive display of equipment, services and technology. Held annually at the Kentucky Exposition Center in Louisville, Kentucky, the show attracts 300,000 attendees from the United States and around the world. The Championship Tractor Pull, the country’s oldest indoor tractor pull, accompanies the show to provide an added element of entertainment and competition. The National Farm Machinery Show occupies over 1.2 million square feet of contiguous exhibit space, contributes $21.5 million in economic impact to the Commonwealth each year, and is owned and produced by the Kentucky State Fair Board.
